From the Committee

At this time next year Creswick and District U3A will be 10 years old, the committee are planning an event to celebrate this milestone.

Those of us who met at the Neighbourhood Centre all those years ago could never have imagined the journey it would take.

Thanks to a dedicated band of volunteers, tutors and committee members we have provided a platform for social, mental and physical stimulation, while having a laugh along the way.

It is very encouraging to look through our membership and see that about 75% of those original members are still with us.

A few of us have also been tutors since those first days {even if not in the same subjects} this willingness to contribute and share is what sets U3A apart from all other voluntary organisations.

Our group recently took part in the new residents meeting at the town hall, it was a very successful event with 54 attending and 15 new residents. A couple had travelled long distances to find out about the place they have chosen to live.

Next meetings are July 28th and October 27th. Volunteers to set up and welcome new residents would be appreciated.

We would also like to say welcome to those new residents who joined U3A on the day. We hope you get full value from your membership.

The Book of Moses starts 4th May there are still vacancies for this course register now to take part.

Expressions of interest are being sought for An introduction to Tarot reading, this will be held over 13 weeks, register your interest now.

THE INSIDE JOKE

A man comes home from work one day to find his dog with the neighbour's pet rabbit in his mouth. The rabbit is very dead and the guy panics. He thinks the neighbours are going to hate him forever, so he takes the dirty, chewed-up rabbit into the house, gives it a bath, blow-dries its fur, and puts the rabbit back into the cage on the neighbour's back porch, hoping that they will think it died of natural causes.

A few days later, the neighbour is outside and asks the guy, "Did you hear that Fluffy died?"

The guy stumbles around and says, "No.. umm.. no.. I didn't. what happened?"

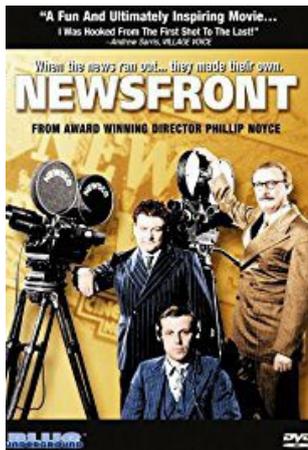

The neighbour replies, "We just found him dead in his cage one day, but the weird thing is that the day after the kids buried him in the backyard we went outside and someone had dug him up, gave him a bath and put him back into the cage. There are some real sick people out there!"

Women are Angels.
And when someone breaks
our wings,
We simply continue to fly....
On a broomstick.
We're flexible like that.

U3A Creswick Exploring World Cinema program for May, June & July 2018

Thursday May 3rd - Newsfront

This 1978 film directed by Philip Noyce and based on fact is a must see. Voted by David Stratton as the best Australian movie ever made. Starring Bill Hunter, Gerrard Kennedy and Wendy Hughes it contains some very historic footage of Australian events. One of Harrison Ford's favourite films. When Phillip Noyce was chosen to direct Patriot Games (1992), Ford asked the producers who the director was because he had never heard of him before (and he had the power to veto a director he didn't like or know). He was told that Noyce directed Dead Calm (1989), which was a big hit but Ford wasn't familiar with the movie. But when he asked about other films directed by Noyce and Newsfront (1978) was mentioned, he said he loved that movie and trusted the studio with their choice of director.

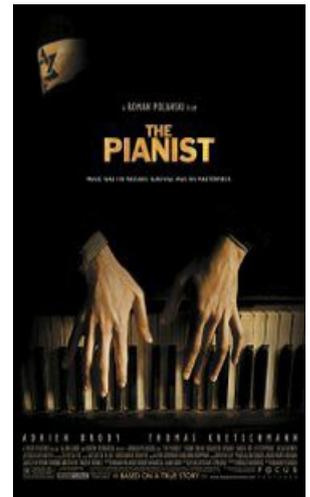

The Pianist Thursday May 10th.

Produced in 2002 Directed by Roman Polanski and nominated for 7 Academy Awards [Winner of 3] Best Actor [Adrien Brody] Best Director [Polanski] and Best Screenplay [Ronald Harwood].

It was nominated for 73 other awards and won 55 including A BAFTA Award for Best Film and BAFTA Award for Best Direction in 2003, seven French Césars, including Best Picture, Best Director, and Best Actor for Brody. Won the Palme d'Or at the 2002 Cannes Film Festival. It was included in BBC's 100 Greatest Films of the 21st Century.

It is based on the autobiographical book The Pianist, a World War II memoir by the Polish-Jewish pianist and composer Władysław Szpilman. The film was a co-production between France, the United Kingdom, Germany, and Poland. It received wide critical acclaim. You will find yourself thinking about this movie long after it finishes.

Warning This is a very long movie 2 hours 3/4 hours. Due to its length we will be starting at 12.45

Maos Last Dancer Thursday June 7th

"Mao's Last Dancer" is the inspiring true story of Li Cunxin and his extraordinary journey from a poor upbringing in rural China to international stardom as a world-class ballet dancer. Based on the best selling autobiography, the film weaves a moving tale about the quest for freedom and the courage it takes to live your own life. It compellingly captures the struggles, sacrifices and triumphs, as well as the intoxicating effects of first love and celebrity amid the pain of exile.

He moved to Melbourne in 1995 with his wife, dancer Mary McKendry, to join The Australian Ballet as a Principal Artist. Li retired from dancing in 1999, at the age of 38, but maintained his strong ties to the ballet community.

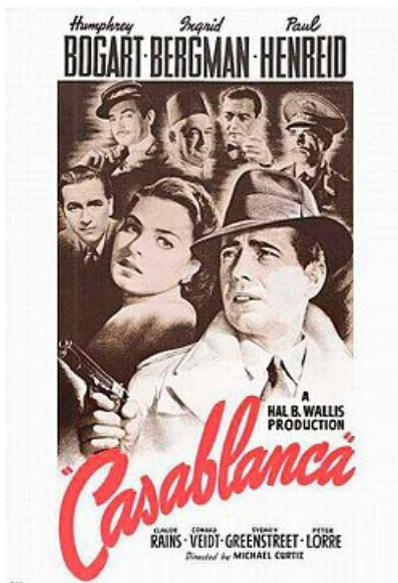

Following his performing career, Li worked in the finance industry as a senior manager at Bell Potter, one of the largest stockbrokers in Australia. Until his appointment as the Artistic Director of Queensland Ballet, Li sat on the board of The Australian Ballet from 2005 and the Bionics Institute.

In 2003, Li published his international best-selling autobiography, Mao's Last Dancer, which has received numerous awards and was adapted as a feature film in 2009. Li was Queensland's Australian of the Year 2014.

Li's contribution to the arts continues to be acknowledged despite his retirement from the stage. In 2008 Li was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by the Australian Catholic University for his contribution to dance and literature. In 2015 he was named as one of the Asia Society's Asia Game Changers recognising remarkable people who have made a difference in the world. Li was honoured for his art, his courage and his cultural diplomacy. In 2016 he was awarded an Honorary Doctorate from Griffith University for his services to ballet, the arts and the wider community.

Casablanca - Thursday June 14th 1.00 pm

This 1942 movie directed by Michael Curtiz is based on Murray Burnett and Joan Alison's unproduced stage play Everybody Comes to Rick's. The film stars Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, and Paul Henreid; it also features Claude Rains, Conrad Veidt, Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, and Dooley Wilson. Set during contemporary World War II, it focuses on an American expatriate who must choose between his love for a woman and helping her and her husband, a Czech Resistance leader, escape from the Vichy-controlled city of Casablanca to continue his fight against the Nazis. Casablanca went on to win the Academy Award for Best Picture, while Curtiz was selected as Best Director and the Epsteins and Koch were honoured for writing the Best Adapted Screenplay – and gradually its reputation grew. Its lead characters, memorable lines, and pervasive theme song have all become iconic and the film consistently ranks near the top of lists of the greatest films in history.

Death in Brunswick - Thursday July 5th.

Death in Brunswick is an acclaimed 1990 black comedy/romance starring Sam Neill, Zoe Carides and John Clarke. Set and filmed in Brunswick, Melbourne, it deals with a humble chef, Carl (Neill) who gets a job at a sleazy nightclub owned by Yanni Voulgaris (Nicholas Papademetriou). He begins a relationship with the Greek-Australian barmaid, Sophie (Zoe Carides), which soon brings him into trouble with his employers and her strict father. His drug dealing Turkish-Australian co-worker, Mustafa (Nick Lathouris), is beaten up by the Greek-Australian owners. Thinking Carl told them, Mustafa attacks Carl. Carl accidentally stabs and kills him.

David Stratton and Margaret Pomeranz, film critics for The Movie Show awarded the film four-and-a-half stars out of five. Stratton described the film as "a black comedy which isn't afraid to take risks, to shift moods, to push to the limit"

Bridge of Spies - Thursday 12th July

During the Cold War, an American lawyer is recruited to defend an arrested Soviet spy in court, and then help the CIA facilitate an exchange of the spy for the Soviet captured American U2 spy plane pilot, Francis Gary Powers.

Stars: Tom Hanks, Mark Rylance, Alan Alda. Director: Steven Spielberg

Made in 2015 and based on true events this movie received 99 nominations for various awards winning 30, including the Oscar for best supporting actor for Mark Rylance. and a BAFTA for Mark Rylance he was also nominated for many of the film critics awards and won quite a number.
